

OBEDIENCE TIPS AND TRICKS SEMINAR WITH DAVE HADDON

Join us on Saturday, April 16, 2016 for Pre-Novice & Novice:
Sunday April 17, 2016 for Open & Utility:
at SKOC Building
3010 Arlington Ave, Saskatoon

$100 for Working Spots each day (Limit of 6) & $50 for Auditor Spots each day (max. 12)

Join us for:

Pre-Novice & Novice: On Day 1, Dave will be discussing creating a solid foundation for all Obedience training. This will include Attention work and creative approaches to various early exercises as you move into the Novice level. He will be using live demos and props along with on floor participation at stages of the seminar.

Open & Utility: On day 2, Dave will touch on Attention and all of the individual Open and Utility exercises. He will give examples of different approaches to the exercises and breaking them down into small parts. He will also conduct an open Q&A on particular problems of the attendees. There will floor work at various stages.

Bring your own lunch, beverages, chairs, notebooks, video recorders, etc.

About Dave: Dave started training dogs 45 year ago. His first dog was a Boxer, Joey, who Dave took to his OTCH - at the time, the highest scoring Boxer in the history of the breed. Dave was trained and mentored by Evelyn Kenny, a pioneer and cornerstone of the Obedience world in Canada. He has since owned and trained GSD, Poodles, OES, Bouviers, Airedales, Rottweilers, Golden Retrievers, and Border Collies. To date, he has trained 4 OTCH dogs and has had 2 dogs in the Top 10 All Breed Obedience in Canada.
